SEIU Local 87 is one of the oldest SEIU locals, started during the 1930s. Today Local 87 honors our heritage as a union of janitors by organizing for our members and a immigrant justice campaign focused on political mobilization, legislative action and education.

A woman and a young girl are the central figures in the background image. The woman, wearing a white and red baseball cap and a red, white, and blue striped tank top, is smiling and looking towards the camera. The young girl, with dark hair and bangs, is wearing a green headband and a red, white, and blue striped tank top, and is also smiling. They are surrounded by other people in patriotic clothing, including American flags and Uncle Sam hats, suggesting a parade or festival setting. The background is slightly blurred, focusing attention on the woman and girl.
