Andrés Manuel López Obrador

The 1994 Gubernatorial Campaign, his fight against PEMEX industry practices, and the 1994 Presidential Election of the United Mexican States

Andrés Manuel
López Obrador

Presidente López Obrador has a long history of activism regarding oil. His political career began in the 1970s in his native Tabasco state, where he led protests against the national oil company, Pemex, for not sharing more of its profits locally. At the time of his campaign for Governor of

Rally crowd at Villa Hermosa

Tabasco in 1994, Pemex's industry practices resulting in devastating environmental contamination to the land and water of his beloved home State. Sr. López Obrador, Leader of the Social Movement, was defrauded from winning his election.

BUSINESS MANAGER

THE BOILERMAKERS ADVANTAGE DONE RIGHT THE FIRST TIME.

Just what is a Boilermaker? We're the skilled craftsmen and women trained and committed to stand apart as the best. We step up when others step back, completing the jobs others are afraid to begin. We solve the hardest problems. And we're the choice for owners and contractors who want the job done right — on time, within budget and safely. Every time.

We're a brotherhood. And everything we are begins with our bond.

We're the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers.

LET'S GET TO WORK TOGETHER.
